Other News & Notes

New GPS Trackers

In our Oct. 2014 edition we highlighted a new, magnetized GPS tracker. We are proud to now offer two non-magnetized versions of that tracker, which feature the same functionality and use the same server site.

In the News – The USA Today Range-R Article

The banner article from The USA Today's Tuesday Jan. 20th edition captioned "Police can 'see' through your walls" discussed L-3's Range-R thru-wall radar device, capable of detecting motion, including respiratory motion, up to 50 feet through any non-metallic building material.
